Stargate Clinic & Stargate Retreat – Full Disclaimer

Stargate Clinic and Stargate Retreat provide both licensed medical services (such as podiatric care and wound management) and non-medical wellness services (such as phototherapy patch protocols, frequency-based healing, and lifestyle education).

Licensed medical services are provided by state-licensed professionals and comply with all applicable laws and FDA standards. Non-medical wellness services are provided through our Private Membership Association (PMA) and are not subject to FDA review or public regulatory oversight.

Statements about products, therapies, or outcomes on this site have not been evaluated by the Food and Drug Administration. They are not intended to diagnose, treat, cure, or prevent any disease.

Individual results vary. No therapeutic outcome or income is guaranteed. Testimonials reflect personal experiences of PMA members and should not be interpreted as medical evidence or financial claims.

Participation in any wellness offering through the PMA is voluntary and does not replace medical care. Users of this site agree to these terms by continuing to browse and interact with content.
